

INSPIRATION AND MOTIVATION

What happens when you follow your dreams.

Have you ever thought about quitting your day job and following your dream? Niall shares 20 years of experiences as a freelance creative, living on his wits and enjoying a life full of “once in a life time” moments. During this stunningly illustrated presentation he also addresses the big related questions of legacy, personal growth, family relationships and security.

- Over his 20 year career, Niall has been a keynote speaker at conferences and meetings in Belgium, Germany, Israel, Norway, Spain, the UK and the US to audiences of up to 1000.

- Niall is widely acknowledged as a leader on the European outdoor photography scene and has a vast catalogue of published work including 6 books. He is also a columnist, project manager, educator and noted thinker on visual communication.

- Fees from £500 +VAT

INSIGHT AND EXPERTISE

What to do when no one is listening.

Imagery is becoming ever more central to effective communication yet it is often undervalued and its potency misunderstood. Based on his “Green communications for the Real World” model, Niall will show you how its core concepts can be applied across a range of businesses and NGOs to help them communicate more effectively with their customers and stakeholders.

